Statement Continued:

I asked the victim if she had clothing at the suspect's home? The victim said no that the first night she did not have clothing and she went to the suspect's home. The victim said that her dad brought her clothing the next day. The victim said the suspect lived in San Jose and gave a description where the suspect lived. The victim said the suspect lived in an apartment that was small. The apartment was one bedroom and one bathroom. The victim described the interior of the apartment.

The victim said she was going to sleep on the couch and there were lights on in the apartment. I asked the victim what happened? The victim said she got to the apartment and they were watching television. The suspect asked the victim if she wanted to play cards and the victim agreed. They began playing cards in which the higher card would ask the loser a question. The suspect got the higher card and asked the victim what was her favorite position. The victim said she felt weird and wondered why the suspect asked her that question? The victim did not answer the question. The card game stopped and they began watching television.

The victim said that she needed to go to the bathroom so when she was walking to the bathroom, the suspect pushed her into the bedroom. The victim got out of the bedroom and was freaking out. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Scientology for older people was younger people. The victim said the suspect was trying to explain to her that it was ok. The victim said she was still freaking out on what the suspect tried to do. The victim said wanted to call dad but subject would not let her. The victim went back into living room area suspect tried to advise the victim that it was common in Scientology for older people to be with younger people.

The victim said she tried to go to the bathroom again. As the victim was walking to the bathroom, the suspect came up from behind her and shoved her in the bedroom. The victim became upset. [REDACTED] The suspect told her to shut up and he covered her mouth with his hand. The victim said she was still trying to make noise. [REDACTED] he was going to hit her. The victim said she thought the suspect was going to hit her if she did not shut up, so she had shut up because she did not want to get hit. The victim became quite. The victim said the suspect then did his thing. The victim said he took her clothes off and she was screaming. suspect raised his right hand in the air as if he was going to hit her.

The victim said she went back into the living room. The suspect also went into the living room and tried to tell her that it was ok that he did this and that it has happened before. The victim was crying. I reviewed the victim's statement with her.
